- II. Marge led the council in the Pledge of Allegiance.
- III. Heidi took attendance.
- IV. Megan C. gave a Secretary's Report from April 28th, which Megan B. gave a motion to approve it as read, which was seconded by Hannah. It was approved. A report was given from May 5th, which was moved to be approved as read by Delaney and seconded by Esther. The motion was also passed.
- V. For committee reports:
  - a. Events got good feedback from having elections the day before the Spring Fling assembly. For Last Bash, we had a pretty good turnout. They are going to follow up with Dave Fleegel to make sure we covered all of the expenses. For the end of the year reviews, they have looked at the big list and have revised it thus far.
  - b. Spirit reported that Spring Fling went pretty well, and they still need to announce the winner.
  - c. Service is calling the keynote speaker tonight to make sure he is coming. The council is going to buy lunch for the office people and the custodial staff for an appreciation lunch. Samantha moves to spend no more than $150 for the Appreciation Lunch for seventeen people. Megan C. seconds, and it is unanimously passed.
  - d. Membership gave a reminder that our end of the year banquet slips should have been turned in. The program is being revised. Everything for Educator of the Year is typed out. They are starting their big list for the year.
  - e. AODA members are figuring out their summer meeting dates
- VI. The early bird signups for the WASC summer camp is this Friday.

VII. We had the second reading of the Constitution. Hannah moves to approve the proposed amendments to the Constitution as read. Richard seconded. We had a unanimous vote to approve.

- II. Marge led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.
- III. Heidi took attendance.
- IV. Beth gave a treasurer's report, and we will be getting soda from Mr. Pilgrim. Also, the pop machines will be changed when the next order of pop is delivered.
- V. Megan C. gave a secretary's report, which was moved to be approved as read by Delaney and seconded by Hannah. The motion was passed.
- VI. For committees:
  - a. Events is holding the Christmas Tree decorating on December 11th, and they need to figure out the judges and the classes and their advisors need to organize who will water it. The trees are to be cleaned December 23. For door decorating, the theme is outdoor winter activities. It will take place from the 8th to the 12th, and judging is the 15th.
  - b. For spirit, they are still making decisions about the carnival and snowshoeing, and will present their thoughts Friday. They are talking to the class advisors to get their input. The mascot will be clean any time now.
  - c. Service has talked to NHS and Mr. Paff about American Education Week. For the convertible posters, Mrs. Eloranta is laminating them Friday. As for Toilet Tidbits, they are fixing the quirks in the signs and making sure they get to every bathroom. Samantha is emailing Key Club for the Blood Drive and seeing if they would like to participate in working it and bringing treats. Tessa emailed the other schools in the district to tell them about the CAMO dress up day. They also need to work on the facts for CAMO day. Ruby's Pantry would like to correspond with us.

d. Membership is done with the brag board and just need to post the rules. They have found a stamp most likely and they will decide which version they want to pursue on getting. For the middle school leadership conference, people need to get their break out session sheets in.

VII. For WASC, Marge needs to figure out if we are paying for the bus or not. She will be contacting Mrs. Lybert, Mr. Leonard, and Mr. Mann.

VIII. For the letter to Antigo, Mrs. Lindau read the letter to the Council as old business.

IX. For new business, attendance reviews will start this week.

X. The meeting next week will be taking place in the cafeteria at 6:45 AM because the cooks will be presenting to us.

XI. For action items, Delaney moved to spend no more than $25 on our stamp. Charlie seconded. The motion was passed.

XII. Adjournment took place at 7:54 AM after Esther moved to adjourn and there were numerous seconds.

- II. Marge H. led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.
- III. Heidi W. took attendance.
- IV. Beth M. gave a Treasurer's report.
- V. For committees:
  - a. Events is getting the candy for the Halloween dress up day and then are putting finishing touches on the contest. Judging will be on October 31st during homeroom. For winter carnival, they have decided to get rid of the hall decorating and will be talking to Mrs. Lybert.
  - b. Spirit met last Tuesday during homeroom about the clubs and sports floats for Homecoming, being that they are two separate categories, and they need to have a float relating to the theme. This has not been set in stone yet. Spirit of Excellence is not going to be worked on this year, and Mr. MASH is a possibility for this year.
  - c. For service, they just need to figure out how to get the muffins to some people for American appreciation week. They will be making a Blood Drive timeline so they are prepared for it in December. For the CAMO day and Toilet Tidbits, Madelyn is getting facts from Jean Flood, and they need to get a day for the dress up day. For the Giving Tree, they have been emailing Michael Lindau to get a list of numbers and what each family needs. These will eventually go to the homerooms.
  - d. Membership needs to get the prizes figured out for the brag board. They still need address labels. The Middle School Leadership Conference is March 17th.
- VI. For WASC, a parent driver is needed. Also, Mrs. Lindau showed numbers and Mark proposed that Mark pays $10 and Delaney said $20. Brecca M. moves that the people who participate in the Fall Institute will pay $25. Delaney L. seconded.
- VII. For new business, we need to write a letter to Antigo about their student section.

VIII. Adjournment took place at 7:56 AM after Hannah B. made the motion and pretty much everyone seconded.

- III. Heidi W. took attendance.
- IV. Megan C. gave a Secretary's Report, which was approved as read by Megan B. and seconded by Delaney L. It was passed.
- V. For committee reports:
  - a. Events gave a quick overview of Homecoming, and they just need to make sure in the future that they watch how the ballots are made and schedule voting for court on non early release days. Unity Week is October 6th to the 10th, and Doug will be calling Nicolet to make sure they are coming. Mr. Wrage will be taking the Unite picture, and Antigo will be assisting us in spelling out Unite.
  - b. For spirit, they talked about making sure they make Homecoming games more simplified. They also are going to be having the mascot be dressed in homeroom so we all know how to do it. Spirit of Excellence will be starting soon.
  - c. Service noted that the convertible posters could be made ahead of time and actually make posters that can be used every year. Dave Fleegel can still supply hot chocolate for the October drive in movie. During homeroom, they will be picking a movie. They are going to be doing the Taylor County Giving Tree project. Corresponding will be done with NHS for American Education week which is November 17th through 21st.
  - d. Membership is working on thank yous. The buck board is going to be a brag board for the entire year/when we get tired of it. They will begin Educator of the Year and the Middle School Conference.

- II. Margaret H. led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.
- III. Attendance was explained; Heidi W. will be taking roll call at the beginning of each meeting, and if you are late or absent you should contact her and/or an advisor. Sports, other school events, sickness or other absences that are pre-excused will not be held against you.
- IV. Megan C. gave a Secretary's report, which was moved to be approved as read by Megan B. and seconded by Madelyn B. The Council unanimously passed the motion.
- V. Beth M. gave a treasurer's report for May.
- VI. For committee reports:
  - A. Events reported the goals they set for themselves as a committee. They also made posters already for the 9/11 tribute and to wear red, white and blue. The date for Homecoming Court photos was set for the Tuesday before Spirit Week, and they are going to give the yearbook people at least three days to get the pictures. The ballot layout is done. They have not contacted other schools yet for Unity Day, but they have set a goal to make it conference wide. Contacting a business for vending something at the Unity game is something they will be working on later, such as when Forward Financial supplied hot chocolate to those who wore blaze orange. Mrs. Lindau told the council about doing the food drive in the spring and doing adopt a family for the winter. It was then brought up to not have just football represent for Homecoming Court.
  - B. Spirit selected and contacted the DJ for the Homecoming dance, the dress up days are decided and posters are made but not printed, a mascot schedule was made, and then they reported their goals. They also contacted the band director and are figuring out the assembly games. Last year's king and queen was also contacted for Homecoming. Moving forward, they need to find their flash drive and figure out the games for Freshman Orientation.

C. Service read their goals for the year. They then updated the parade forms, Jay C. has the Toilet Tidbits through October done, and they contacted and are working on contacting organizations for the Homecoming Parade. They are in contact with Mrs. Haas for the backdrop. They are searching for the Blood Drive date and will be contacting the blood center tomorrow. The idea of an outdoor movie for Homecoming possibly (or just when the weather permits) has also been pursued and they will be contacting people.

D. Membership has the bulletin boards for sports and events done, and they are working on the Facebook page. They are working to get ahold of Mrs. Sawdey to get administration on the Facebook page. A charity for the penny drive was chosen, Music in Memory, which deals with dementia patients and getting devices to play their music for them. When membership contacts them tomorrow, they will see how the organization wants the money donated. Businesses will be contacted also tomorrow to see if they want to be included in the penny drive. They then read their goals for the year.

VII. In new business, freshman orientation came up, which the passport challenge is happening again, and we will be visiting each homeroom. During lunch, upperclassmen will be either eating lunch with the Freshman and having a question panel. At the end of the day, there will be a mock assembly. Then, Mikayla K, Jay C, and Brecca M talked about WASC camp. There is an institute October 26th and 27th, the region 2 summit is November 19th, the ignite conference is , the senior high conference is , and the leadership camp is in July.

VIII. For an action item, we discussed the sunglasses for Homecoming. Madelyn B. moved to spend no more than $200 on the sunglasses, and Beth M. seconded. The motion was passed after a unanimous I. Keeping in mind, Mrs. Lybert may pay for them. Another action item was officiating the Homecoming theme of famous apps, Megan B. moved to approve the 2014 Homecoming theme and Hannah B. seconded, the Council also unanimously passed this after no further discussion.

IX. Delaney L. moved to to adjourn the meeting, Megan B. seconded, and the meeting was adjourned at 8:26 PM.
